LOCAL MENTION.

—The Scranton exposition is in full blast and is highly commended by all who have been there.

—Don't forget the High school lecture course. Secure your tickets early. Course tickets $1.00. Five excellent entertainments.

—Franklin E. Frisbie of Fort Totten, N. Y., and Myrtle B. Frisbie of Avoy, Pa., were married Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock by Justice Smith.

—L. E. Crane, Arrow, Pa., has sold through the Dorin real estate agency the property at Blandin, known as the Dersheimer homestead to William and Rhoda Holland.

—Du Bois Weston is now located in the office formerly occupied by the late Orville R. Rowland. He is offering guaranteed water bonds. These bonds are an investment which are absolutely safe.

—The annual meeting of the Needlework Guild for collection and distribution will be held the first week in November. Will the contributors please send in their garments the last week in October?

—Editor W. T. Doty of the Newburgh Union was run down by a wagon and, strange to say, the wagon was not injured, although the editor was knocked down an embankment. He formerly worked on the Port Jervis Union.

—Rev. Henry Houston, the blind evangelist, has been appointed by the Wyoming Presbytery to assist the pastors of the various Presbyterian churches in this section in their effort to create a greater interest among the people in Christian belief and work.

—F. W. Michaels had the good luck of finding a black pearl while opening oysters for which he was offered (so we are told) $200 but refused as he expects to go to New York city in the near future and will have the pearl examined by Tiffany & Co.

—The local council of the "Knights of Columbus" will celebrate Columbus day Oct. 12th by exemplifying the first degree to a large class of candidates. This will be followed by a social and entertainment to which all members are earnestly invited to attend.

—The lecture course, under the management of the Honesdale public schools, promises to be a series of entertainments of great interest to our people and we trust that they will be well patronized. The course ticket for five entertainments costs only one dollar.

—The molderers at the National Elevator works are now working under good conditions; the foundry building having been repaired, and the work which had accumulated owing to the damage done to the building by the fire is now being rapidly pushed forward.

—Judge Edwards of Scranton has rebuked several constables for inaccuracy in their returns. When a constable returned Rocky Glen, an amusement resort, for illegal selling, he was informed by the court that persons only and not a place could be so reported. This return was the result of the sale of liquors by two parties who conducted picnics at the resort.

—Major Edgar Jadwin, U. S. A., one of the engineers in charge on the Panama canal, is on a visit to his father, C. C. Jadwin. The Major is accompanied by his son, C. C. Jadwin, 2d. The Major reports that the work on the canal is progressing rapidly and he believes that the stupendous job will be completed sooner than 1915 which is the date given out when the canal will be opened for navigation.

—A number of people called at our office during fair week and it was a great pleasure for us to meet them. Among those who called were E. D. Goodnough of Girdland, John F. Blake of Union, John D. Jordens of Uswick, Albert Gillow of Lookout, S. G. Webster of Madisonville, R. E. Randall of Lake Como, John Sossenheimer and Charles L. Simons of Hamlin, Fred F. Chapman of Ariel, and John F. Reer of Arlington.

Why not use the Bell?

Mrs. Wheeler had been an invalid for several years. She was born in New Jersey and came to Honesdale in 1838 with her parents, Nathaniel Beers and wife, her brother Elias and sister Nancy, now Mrs. Tillou. She was married in 1843 to M. V. Wheeler who was a superintendent in the employ of the D. & H. Co. Mr. Wheeler died in 1869. She is survived by one daughter, Jennie, now Mrs. Marcus A. Goodwin of New York City. Mrs. Wheeler was a most excellent woman, possessing a strong character. The burial services were held at her home Saturday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Swift, her pastor, officiating. Four of her old Sunday school scholars, W. J. Reif, W. J. Ferber, Frank Schuller and A. C. Lindsay, assisted by J. A. Bodie and O. T. Chambers, acted as pall-bearers.

THE STALKER REUNION.

The ninth annual reunion of the Stalker family was held on Wednesday, Aug. 31, 1910, at John T. Stalker's at Hurd, N. Y. At noon the tables were spread with all sorts of good things which was thoroughly enjoyed.

After dinner a business meeting was held and David Stalker, Sr., was elected president and Emma Stalker secretary.

During the year two of the oldest members have passed away. Asa Stalker died in December, 1908 and Sybil M. Keesler died May 6, 1909, both of Galilee.

There has been two marriages: May Stalker of Warren, Pa., and Edward Stalker of Hurd, N. Y.; also two births, a son to each of the following: Harry Stalker and wife and Royal Stalker and wife.

There were 36 present and it was decided to meet next year in the Abramsville grove the last Wednesday in August.

The following relatives were present: David Stalker, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stalker and children, Frank and Mae, Mr. and Mrs. James Monington, Mr. and Mrs. John Stalker and children, Susie, Bertha, Thomas, Emory, Pearl and Clinton, Mrs. Martha Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Demetious Monington, Edith Monington and children, Bertha, Arthur and Vance, R. V. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker and daughter, Gail, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Walker and son, Clarence, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stalker, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stalker and son, Kenneth.

M. SCUDDER DIES AGED 94 YEARS.

Michael Scudder, who was 94 years, 4 months and 17 days old, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. O. W. Stewart, in Savannah, Mo., Sept. 22, 1910. He was an old settler and had been postmaster and Justice of the Peace at Amazonia for many years and was prominent in many of the affairs there. He was born in Roxbury, Delaware county, N. Y., May 5, 1816.

The deceased was married to Emillina Monington at West Damascus, Wayne county, Pa., Dec. 17, 1854. To this union were born seven children only three of whom are living, Mrs. O. W. Stewart of this county, Mrs. Janna Rogers of Leavenworth, Kan., and Mrs. May Culp of Kansas City.

Mr. Scudder moved to Andrew county and located in Amazonia in the spring of 1865 and taught the village school and was appointed a Justice of the Peace to which office he was repeatedly elected. Many homes in this county started from a time when he pronounced them husband and wife.

In 1866 he formed a mercantile partnership with John Bruce, Sr., buying his interest in 1867. From that date to Jan. 1, 1901, he continued an active, honorable, and successful business. He secured for Amazonia a postoffice and was its postmaster continuously until 1893.

He united with the Baptist church under the pastorate of Elder S. S. Collins. Some time after which time he with others organized the First National Missionary Baptist church of Amazonia on the 19th day of January, 1867. He was elected church clerk and is the last of the charter members as far as known.

His wife Emillina died Nov. 1, 1873. He afterward married Mrs. Ann Potter, who also preceded him to the better land, Jan. 21, 1895.

In November, 1901, he lost his eyesight, to which affliction he patiently submitted, never complaining except to desire to pass out of the darkness of this world into the bright beyond.

The funeral was held in the church at Amazonia and the church was most beautifully decorated and the very large attendance showed the degree of respect in which this venerable man was held. Then too the floral offerings were remarkable because of their profusion and expense and the relatives and friends from Savannah were almost overwhelmed with this expression of esteem and respect. Rev. T. J. Engert of the First M. E. church of Savannah conducted the funeral, using Job 16:22 as a text. The discourse was conceded to be very appropriate, making it plain that all should desire the death of the righteous, for "precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." The remains were laid in the Amazonia cemetery.

DIES OF BROKEN HEART.

Sportsman Drops Dead Beside Dog Killed by Auto.

Pittsfield, Mass., Oct. 11.—Allen Decker of Egremont sportsman, died of broken heart when his favorite bird dog was killed by being crushed under the wheels of an automobile.

Decker, who was a miller, had bred and broke the dog and believed him to be the best local dog in its class.

When he saw the dog he ran to it and pulled its body upon the grass beside the road and fell dead beside the animal.

OPEN AIR SCHOOL STARTS.

Twenty-one Pupils In Attendance at Montclair.

Montclair, N. J., Oct. 11.—With twenty-one pupils in attendance the outdoor school for delicate children of the Montclair public schools was opened in a large tent. Most of the public schools of the town are represented.

As fast as the children who are now in the class are restored to health their places will be taken by other delicate children of the public schools.

HACKENSACK MEADOWS AFIRE

Squatter Settlements Destroyed and Inhabitants Flee For Lives.

Hackensack, N. J., Oct. 11.—The Hackensack meadows, extending the whole way from the county road at Snake Hill to the Paterson plank road, are on fire, and dense volumes of smoke are arising from the blazing meadows.

The fire is said to have extended a distance of about four miles and to be still spreading. It was started by a spark from a locomotive, it is thought.

In the burned area there were several small settlements consisting of the shanties of squatters for the most part, and these are said to have been consumed by the flames, but the occupants escaped safely so far as known.

Taft Still Wearing Slipper.

Beverly, Mass., Oct. 11.—President Taft is still wearing a silk carpet slipper on account of that sore foot of his. The inflammation caused by the shoe that pinched is gradually being reduced, but the president had to give up his golf game.

ESCAPES WHILE HANDCUFFED

Fugitive at Large Without Shoes—Accused of Robbery.

Newburg, N. Y., Oct. 11.—With a pair of handcuffs on his wrists and without shoes on his feet Joseph Faulter is roaming the country in the vicinity of New Windsor. Faulter was arrested on Sunday morning at New Windsor by Paul Lattick after the people in the vicinity of a saloon had chased the man out of cover where he had taken refuge after robbing the saloon cash register, the dropping of a drawer from which aroused the inmates of the house and started a rush for the burglar.

The two drove to the home of a justice of the peace, some distance away, and Faulter was the last one in the wagon. Lattick left on one side of the wagon nearest the office and told Faulter to follow suit. Instead he jumped from the opposite side, near the woods, and got away.

A Very Good Play Coming to This Place on Tuesday Evening of Next Week.

The management takes great pleasure in announcing to the patrons of the Lyric theatre for Tuesday evening, Oct. 18th, William A. Brady and Jos. R. Gelsman's great comedy "A Gentleman from Mississippi" by Thomas A. Wise and Harrison Rhodes. This very successful comedy ran over a year in New York City and six months in Chicago. This is a guaranteed attraction and the people ought to turn out and patronize it. Honesdale theatre goers can hardly expect to have the opportunity of seeing many of the higher class attractions unless they give the proper support to the management who is endeavoring to give us some of the best plays obtainable. Seat sale starts at the box office on Monday morning at 9 a. m.

EVER INCREASING.

A bank account is like a snowball—roll it gently along and it will get larger (almost without your noticing it) as the days go by. Like the snowball, too, the hardest work is making the first deposit, giving it the first push, after which the initial impetus gains as the ball runs down, the bank account rolls up. We want to help you with your financial snowball.
